Air Transat launches exciting new sun destination this winter at London International!

Travelers in Southwestern Ontario can enjoy an easy and comfortable travel experience to Puerto Plata, Dominican Republic.

LONDON, ON – Beginning December 19 2019, travelers from Southwestern Ontario will be able to fly from London International with weekly service on Thursdays to Puerto Plata, Dominican Republic. The added service joins Punta Cana and Cancun as the third sun destination from London serviced by Air Transat.

“Puerto Plata is an exciting addition to our growing list of sun destinations out of London” says Mike Seabrook, CEO at London International Airport. “We work closely with the travel agency community in our area and Puerto Plata is the destination in the Dominican Republic that has been most requested. We think it will be a real winner out of London International”.
